

The Daily Courant.

Monday, July 23. 1722.

London, July 23.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from France, and another from Holland.

Moscow, June 23.

Yesterday the Court received Advice by an Express, that the Czar was arrived at Astracan: Upon this the Ministers here gave a magnificent Ball in the Evening, at which the Duke of Holstein was present. It is said, that upon the Czar's Arrival at Astracan, he immediately visited his Fleet, and gave proper Orders for the intended Expedition, designing to embark in a few Days, and that the Descent is to be made on the other Side the Caspian Sea; to which Purpose, several light Vessels with Engineers, and other Officers on board, had been thither before to reconnoitre the Coast, and being returned, have reported to his Majesty, they have discovered two Places very convenient for Landing; and 'tis said that a Descent may be made with greater Ease than was imagined.

Stockholm, June 27. O. S. The Dutchess Dowager of Mecklenbourg, his Swedish Majesty's Sister, having desired Leave to pay her Respects to the Queen, it is said the King has permitted that Princess to come, and that his Majesty will himself meet her at Elsinberg; and as his Majesty has appointed the Beginning of August for the reviewing of the several Regiments in Schonen, and the adjacent Provinces, it is presumed her Highness will come over about the same Time. The Weather has all the last Month and this been so extreme wet and cold all over this Kingdom, that if a sudden Change do not happen, the whole Crop of Corn now on the Ground must be inevitably spoiled, the Wheat and Rye particularly being already every where laid almost flat on the Ground.

Lisbon, July 5. On the 25th past, his Britannick Majesty's Ship the Dursley Galley entred this River, after having cruized for some Days off the Burlings; where on the 21st she met the Dutch Squadron, under the Command of Commodore Grave, consisting of six Men of War of 40 Guns each. They were proceeding for the Mediterranean, in order to cruise against the Algerines, who (as we are informed by Letters from Faro of the 26th past) in Conjunction with the Rovers of Sallee, have fitted out 18 Ships of above 20 Guns each.

Vienna, July 15. The Emperour set out Post the 13th Instant from Presbourg to Manstorf near Ort on the other Side the Danube, to take the Diversion of Hunting; after which he returned to Presbourg. Advices from thence say that the States of Hungary continue their Deliberations upon the Emperour's Propositions; and 'tis assured that the Protestants of that Kingdom will not only obtain free Exercise of their Religion, but Admission likewise to the several Employments in the Government of that Kingdom. Letters from Harzgerode in the Principality of Anhalt say, that a great Fire happened there the 21st past, consumed above half the City, and ruined above 100 Families. Letters from Bavaria give an Account of great Damage done lately by Tempests in several Parts of that Country, particularly at Landshut on the 7th past, being the Octave of the Holy Sacrament, at which Time arose a furious Storm of Thunder and Lightning, and continued during the Reception, so that it was with the utmost Difficulty that the Host was preserved: The Hail being of an extraordinary Bigness, 'tis said some Stones weighed a Pound, and the least were as big as a Pigeon's Egg; many Persons were hurt, even in the Church, and that almost all the Windows and Tiles in the City were broken. Fruit-Trees and Vines spoiled, and the Corn laid flat on the Ground.

Copenhagen, July 18. The King of Sweden is expected shortly in Schonen. The King of Denmark has given Orders to his Grand Marschal to go thither as soon as he arrives, and to invite his Majesty to come to this Court.

Paris, July 29. Letters from Malta of the 23d past say, the Grand Master died on the 17th past, and that the Commanders and Knights in the Island holding a general Chapter of their Order, had elected to the Dignity of Grand Master the Commander d'Acunha, a Portuguese, Brother to the Cardinal of that Name. Count Albert, Envoy Extraordinary from Bavaria, has caused a great Quantity of rich Silks, with other fine Goods and Plate, to be bought here, to be made use of, as 'tis supposed, at the Electoral Prince's Wedding. Mr. William Law is released from his Confinement in Fort l'Eveque. The Pope's Nuncio gave a splendid Dinner on the 23d Instant to the Venetian Ambassadors, and 12 other publick Ministers. The same Day some Persons broke into one of the little Chapels in the Church of our Lady, and profaned the Crucifix, the Picture, and Holy Water Stone, by laying Filth upon them; the next Day the Chapel was privately re-blessed. The Venetian Ambassadors went Yesterday to Versailles; they had their first private Audience of the King, and afterwards saw the Water-Works play. The Execution of Cartouche's Gang is still continued; the Landlord of the House where Cartouche was taken was executed last Week, as was also a Female Accomplice, who has caused above 30 of that Gang to be hanged. It is reported, that Orders are sent to the Governours along the Coasts of Provence and Languedoc, to supply the Grand Signior's Fleet in those Seas with what Provisions it may stand in need of: It is not yet certainly known for what Enterprize that Armament is designed.

London, July 20.

The Right Honourable the Lord Whitworth, His Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary at the Congress at Cambray, set out to Day for Dover, in order to embark for Calais. His Lordship is to make a short Stay at Paris, and from thence to proceed to Cambray.

Baron Sparre the King of Sweden's Envoy Extraordinary, will set out from hence next Tuesday for Stockholm, from whence he is to return in a few Weeks to this Court.

Whereas Proposals were made in December last, for printing the genuine Works of JUSTIN MARTYR, the Greek Text exactly according to Robert Stephens's Edition, with the Version of Langus corrected in innumerable Places by the Editor Mr. STYAN THIRLBY, of Jesus College in Cambridge, together with select Notes of all the former Editors, and of Scalliger, Casaubon, Salmasius, Capellus, Valesius, and other Learned Men; and at the End are Bishop Pearson's and Dr. Davies's Notes upon the first Apology, both now first published. The whole, as mentioned in the Proposals, to consist of 120 Sheets, printed with elegant new Types, at 25 s. in Sheets, a single Book, and those who subscribed for 6 Books, to have a 7th gratis, which would reduce the Price to 1 l. 15 s. 6 d. NB. Not any thing will be demanded for 6 Sheets over and above the Number of 120 Sheets proposed. This therefore is to acquaint the Subscribers, and all other Gentlemen that may have an Inclination to take the Advantage of subscribing, that the said Book is intirely finished, and will be ready to be delivered on the 30th Instant, by the Undertaker Richard Sare, near Gray's-Inn-Gate in Holbourn.

Just published, the 2d Edition corrected of;

A New Theory of Consumptions: More especially of a Pthitis, or Consumption of the Lungs. Wherein is a brief History of the Distemper, its various Symptoms throughout its several Degrees, and every minute Step it takes, from first invading the Patient, to its final Termination. Enquiry is made concerning the Prime Essential, and hitherto accounted Inexplicable Cause of that Disease, so very Endemic to this Nation, and generally fatal to those it seizes on. With an Account of the great Number of Medicines, and various Methods of Cure recommended for Consumptions, and the different Opinion of Authors concerning them. Also the Possibility of healing Ulcers in the Lungs asserted, the strongest Objections against it answer'd, and a different and more probable Method of Cure advanced, than commonly practis'd.
